Drawings for the new shooting range

- Bret Reynolds with Civco Engineering presented the findings of his preliminary examination of our drawings. He said that with our current plans we would have to excavate 118,500 yards of dirt & rock which, at $10 per yard, would cost over a million dollars. He flipped the pistol range and the rifle range and it dropped the excavation down to 30,000 yards. The committee gave him the go-ahead to continue examine the plans of the least cost.
- We are going to contact SITLA to find a cost for purchasing more land.

UORG Grant

- We are all working on the application. Bret is working on the cost of the ground work. Mike is working on the cost off the benches, tables & shelters. Matt is working on getting more information to Heidi.
- Soft due date is March 6th. Final due date is March 20th.
